CLUB NEWS

What a fantastic night at Wayville on April 13th!

We celebrated our Life Members and Sponsors, with a gathering that brimmed with nostalgia. It was an honour to have 6 out of 9 of our past club presidents, spanning from 1983 to 2024, join us for the festivities. Their leadership has shaped our club's rich history, and we're privileged to still have them among us. Here's to the past, present, and future of our incredible club!

CLUB PROFILE

Uche Dibiamaka

The person I would most like to meet:

Goku

Best piece of advice:

Embrace your own journey

Best basketball memory:

College Hoops

Basketball player I'd like to meet:

LeGoat James

Favourite movie:

Space Jam 2021

Interesting fact:

My brother and I won 2 State Championships together.

Most famous person I have ever met:

Alex Caruso

Uche was born in Adelaide, Australia and embarked on his basketball journey at the tender age of five, alongside his brother Uzo, who also shared a passion for the game and later played at St. Edward's. Their shared love for basketball led them to pursue their dreams on the court.

At the onset of his high school years, Uche relocated to Houston, Texas, where he continued to hone his skills. Throughout his four years in high school, he exhibited exceptional talent, culminating in a remarkable achievement as he helped clinch the state championship in 2018, marking a significant milestone in his basketball career.

Transitioning to the collegiate level, Dibiamaka initially attended the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley. However, his journey took a turn when he made the decision to transfer to St. Edward's University. Despite the change in scenery, he seamlessly adapted to his new environment and made substantial contributions to the Hilltoppers' basketball program. During his tenure at St. Edward's, Dibiamaka showcased his prowess as a guard, leading the team to consecutive appearances in the Lone Star Conference Tournament. His exceptional performances on the court earned him accolades, including a spot on the LSC all-conference first team in his debut season with the Hilltoppers. In the subsequent season, he secured a spot on the all-conference second team, further solidifying his reputation as one of the conference's top players.

This year we were lucky enough to welcome Uche Dibiamaka onto our NBL1 Men's team.
